We negotiated all day today and have been primarily dealing with the non-economic issues. We are trying to work through them.

We are meeting, again on Tuesday. The bargaining team is meeting all week. Feedback to the emails is appreciated and helpful. But it will be difficult for bargaining team members to do walkthroughs, this week, because we have to focus on wrapping up these negotiations. FBC members will continue doing walkthroughs, this week, to share updates and get feedback.
